2. Programme for Employees of Voluntary Organizations –

Employees are the backbone of an organization. In their capacities, lies the future of organization. So, it is a matter of grave importance that the employees of voluntary organizations should be well equipped with the recent trends, technologies, work practices etc.

In view of this, prabodhini provides training to the employees covering following topics –

- Office Management & Time Management
- Capacity Building & Leadership Development
- Financial Planning & Discipline
- Communication Skills
- Interpersonal Relations
- Public Relations of an Organization

3. Programme for MSW/BSW students

Students pursuing their career in Social Work are the assets for the future social work. Hence it is essential that before going into the field, they should be well equipped with the entire ecosystem of social work. This has resulted in designing a special course for the capacity building of students pursuing MSW/BSW. It covers following topics -

- Social work in contemporary seniro
- Communication & Networking Skills
- Developing Employability Skills
- Exploring social policy and social Justice
- Mental health
- Disaster Management
- Critical thinking
- Media for Development
- Professional commitment
- Social Development
- Digital Skilling
- Internship and Placement opportunities

4. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

Since its inception, CSR underwent many amendments, so it became crucial for an implementing agencies to keep themselves updated, especially for those relying on Corporates for execution of their projects. Accordingly, prabodhini has come up with Capacity Building of Voluntary Organizations in the CSR domain. It covers following topics –

- Basic provisions of Company Act 2013 with Section 135
- Necessary Documents required to qualify for CSR
- Project Proposal writing & its presentation
- Coordination & Communication with Corporate CSR team
- Building cordial relation with CSR team of Corporate
- Application of technology wherever necessary

CSR Dialogue

Corporate Representatives

Representatives of Voluntary Organisations (VO)

5. Social Survey Methodologies & its usefulness

Social survey is a significant part of work in every Voluntary Organization. It is an early identification of problems that helps understand addressing the issue in lesser time with appropriate solution and with optimum utilization of resources. Prabodhini has come up with entire syllabus of Social Survey for identifying, addressing and resolving issues, which is as follows –

- Social Survey – accessing its Need, Utility and Preparedness
- Accumulation of Resources for the survey
- Analysis of data collected through the survey
- Participatory method of Survey
- Presentation of final outcome & Report writing
- Use of Geo-Spatial Technology for Surveys

6. Social Stock Exchange

The Social Stock Exchange (SSE) is a platform that connects investors with companies and organizations that have a positive social or environmental impact. It operates similarly to traditional stock exchanges but focuses on businesses that prioritize social responsibility alongside financial returns. The SSE provides a marketplace where investors can support companies dedicated to making a difference while still potentially earning profits. This concept aligns with the growing interest in impact investing, where investors seek to generate positive societal or environmental outcomes alongside financial gains.

Thus, prabodhini has come up with a dedicated training programme on Social Stock Exchange (SSE) for better understanding of what it is all about with recent updates in it –

- Roles and Responsibilities of Trustees
- Taxation of Trust
- Practical Aspects of SSE
