Rambhau Mhalgi Prabodhini (RMP)

Established in 1982, Rambhau Mhalgi Prabodhini (RMP) is a pioneering society dedicated to leadership development and capacity building. Our mission is to nurture and empower elected representatives, social workers, and individuals driving institutions, organizations, and startups. Through our comprehensive training programs and research initiatives, we address socially relevant issues, including those affecting marginalized communities and rural areas.

With a special consultative status granted by the United Nations Economic and Social Council, RMP stands as a unique institution in South Asia and Southeast Asia. Over the years, we have trained over 2 lacs individuals, including Members of Parliament, Members of Legislative Assemblies, panchayat office bearers, NGOs, corporate professionals, entrepreneurs, and youth leaders.

At RMP, our objectives include enhancing the capabilities of voluntary activists and elected representatives, conducting seminars and workshops on socio-political issues, and promoting entrepreneurship and innovation through ideation workshops. We also offer regular training sessions for startup teams to navigate business challenges effectively.

Operating nationally with offices in Delhi, Pune, and Mumbai, RMP leverages its extensive local exposure, understanding, and networks to make a meaningful impact across the country. Additionally, we have established the Indian Institute of Democratic Leadership (IIDL), dedicated to fostering democratic leadership and grooming the youth for political responsibility.
